

Appropriate Antibiotic Prescribing for Pediatric and Adult Respiratory Infections

Snort. Sniffle. Sneeze.
No Antibiotics Please.

June 18, 2014
6-8 pm
Sheraton Hotel & Conference Center
Burlington, Vermont

CME EVENT

Who should attend?

Pediatric, family practice, internal medicine, and emergency medicine providers.

Credit

Physician attendees will receive:
1 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit™

Objectives

- Consider the importance of the appropriate use of antibiotics to treat upper respiratory infections (URIs)
- Learn about professional guidelines for treating URIs in adults and pediatric patients
- Become familiar with the Get Smart patient educational materials

Agenda

6:00 pm Meet and greet
6:30 pm Dinner will be served
7-8:00 pm Dr. Christopher Grace

Registration

Contact Patsy Kelso or Jenna Paige
at the Department of Health:
802-863-7240

This free event is limited to the first 47 registrants.

Deadline to Register: June 6

Program Faculty

Christopher Grace, MD, Director of Infectious Disease for the University of Vermont College of Medicine. Speaking about appropriate antibiotic use for respiratory infections.

Patsy Kelso, PhD State Epidemiologist for the Vermont Department of Health.

Accreditation & Designation Statements

This activity has been planned and implemented in accordance with the Essential Areas and Policies of the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) through the joint sponsorship of the University of Vermont College of Medicine and the Vermont Department of Health.

UVM designates this live activity for a maximum of 1 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Nurses are welcome to attend the activity, but will not be able to receive nursing credit.

